SUPERCHARGE your brain for innovation today!

COVID taught us that some of the current rules do not work all the time. At the individual level, it is a year of RE-IMAGINATION to live, learn, work and play in a movement restricted environment. With digitalisation, comes connectivity and global competition. Enterprises need to re-imagine too.

Yet, our brains are wired to keep us alive and repeat what is safe. Re-imagination and innovation are about change and doing things outside our comfort zone. No wonder it's a challenge for most to re-imagine, it is just not in our DNA!

The secret is adopting Growth Mindset and applying Design Thinking. Discover how innovators, explorers, pioneers and creators have always done it. Master Design Thinking and be a powerhouse of dreaming ingenious solutions, one challenge at a time.

Discover how Design Thinking will lead you intuitively to creating new forms of value, not merely adding value. Learn from award winning facilitator with insight and passion! Get ready to be engaged through project, role play, discussion and presentation. Join us for this breakthrough workshop and be the driving force behind your company's innovations.
